July 17th is the date of Ringling Brothers' circus at Montpelier and when that day arrives don't forget that the Central Vermont is the only line running special trains direct to the circus grounds. Round trip tickets 20 cents from Barre, 25 cents from South Barre, 60 cents from Williamstown. See doggers for time of trains.

A warrant was placed in the hands of the Montpelier police Thursday for the arrest of Harlie Bates for non support of his wife and seven children, who are living in Barre, but are looked after by Overseer Parmenter. It is alleged Bates has given his family only $1 since circus day. When found Bates was arrested for intoxication. Bates at first thought he would plead not guilty and asked for a jury trial. He later thought he was drunk and took 15 days in jail, it being his first offense. The case of non-support against Bates will be taken up when he gets out of jail.

The parade of the Ringling Bros. circus of which so much is promised in the way of novelties will leave the show grounds at Montpelier with military promptness at ten o'clock on Monday morning. You ought to hear the circus man who is at present in the city talk about it. The flight of the air ship man is as nothing compared to his flight into poetic description. My, but isn't there going to be a lot of things in it. The parade will be three miles long and will be the longest thing of its kind since old man Noah and the animals hiked into the Ark.

Mrs. Frank Gunk died at Heaton hospital yesterday of puerperal septicaemia, after an illness of three weeks. She was taken to the hospital on Thursday evening. Some four years ago she had an attack of the same disease that deprived her of the sight of one eye; this last attack rendered her totally blind. The deceased was about 35 years old and had only lived in Montpelier a short time. Her husband is employed in the water and street departments of the city. Besides her husband, the deceased leaves a four-years-old son, Jerry, and a three-weeks-old daughter. Funeral services were held this morning in St. Augustine's church.
